Almost all of the bargage aboard was examined by customs inspectors, and after a brief personal examination this morning the weary voyagers were allowed to land, "he heavier baggage will be passed as quickly as possible, but the owners were not held to see it through, being permitted to land and their effects later in the day. Not a passenger came ashore that did in the highest terms of the officers of the I ene, and all agreed there was perfect order on the liner passengers knew just what had hapgreatly in transchipping the passengers for the Fire Island Lightship. came in for much deserved praise.

each and the coast patrol is constantly of the lightship. on duty sniffing the air for signs of a as they took their observations through and could not see any land. the lifting haze. Although the wind was "The ship was drawing twenty-two scarcely more than a breeze, there were feet aft and 194 feet forward. Sud-indications which the weatherwise redenly, at 2.55 o'clock, I felt a shock the lifting haze. Although the wind was safely landed, and the keel of the big ting her off, but she did not move.

ship flat in a bed of sand, a blow of "The deadlights were lowered over the moderate intensity could not have the ports on the steerage deck so that the terrors for the captain and crew which it would have held twenty-four hours seeing land at band when daylight ago. The fleet of tugs anchored hard by likewise insured ample assistance

The work of lightering the cargo be-gan at 7 o'clock. The cargo was an easy one to handle, consisting for the most part of lemons, maccaroni and similar products of the Mediterranean. The work of lightering the cargo bemost part of lemons, maccaroni and rose and blew at the rate of twenty-similar products of the Mediterranean. four miles an hour from the southwest, packed in small cases. Only one light- which set her up again on an even er was available for the work when keel." he transfer was begun, but eight more were on their way, seven from New NASSAU GUN CLUB TO ork and one from Boston. With fair weather it was expected that a considerable proportion of the cargo could moved in forty-eight hours.

No Damage to Hull-

the vessel was not making water. Supt. Kunwick of Hoboken had taken charge

"If we get a good smart offshore wind, we can get the Irene off some time next week. I have every reason to believe that she can be brought into Hoboxen without so much as a started plate.

The report that one of the engineers of the Irene had committed suicide is all nonsense. Everybody is well on Big Blow Greatest Fear.

Wrecking Officer Dunbar, who, with said that in his opinion it would be two weeks before the Irene was floated. He feared the wind would shift the sand under the ship's bow and leave her astride of the bar in a position which would greatly increase the danger of breaking the hull down amidships in case of a severe blow.

At 11.20 to-day the North German Lloyd offices received a wireless from the Princess Irene saying all the cabin and siteerage bagsage had been trans-and steerage baggage had been trans-ferred to a lighter, and that the lighter, oken. It reached the dock about 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Figs. Canbe under the second street of the second s noon I could not take an observation by the sun.

FOURTH RACE—Purse $300; handling at the Germania Machinerator Hall, cap; three-year-olds and up; one mile when Johnny Tohan, the clever Broof-and a sixteenth.—Plate Glass, 99 lyn welterweight, outfought Joe Seiger

Couldn't "Shoot Sun."

Couldn't "Shoot Sun."

(Byrne), 4 to 5, 1 to 3 and out, won; of Denver before the Armory A.

T managed, however, to get a star Vreeland, 101 (Olsen), 13 to 5, 3 to 5 their staround encounter. Blows "I managed, however, to get a star Vreeland, 101 (Olsen), 13 to 5, 3 to 5 their six-round encounter, and 6,50 o'clock that night, which was an dout, second; Aldrian, 98 (Callatta exchanged with such rapidity and the last observation I made. From that han), 8 to 1, 2 to 1 and out, third, amazing force that it was difficult to time until we struck on the bar our Time, 1,50 2-5. Guy Fusher also ran distinguish which man was receiving and sin shed as named. the observations taken by the star, was

Apartments

Why move hurriedly and without forethought into an apartment, house, store or office that does not answer your requirements when will be easy for you to find a most

The Sunday World To-Morrow

at noon was very hany with light rains and I could not see the horizon. I had soundings taken every hour, beginning at noon that day, and found they con pared with those taken on the previous voyage in clear weather. "At 8 o'clock that night we ran into a heavy fog and reduced our speed to four knots, just enough to keep steerage way on the ship. All the watertight bulkfirst blast of the fog horn sounded and they were kept shut until she went Soundings Every Hour.

"The soundings were taken all through even after she struck and before the the night every hour, and there was nothing to indicate that we were runday I was on the bridge with Second ing on the rescuing ship from the time officer Koennecke and Fourth Officer she left Fire Island last night until Versernig. There was a lookout in the she dropped anchor off the Statue of bows and one in the crow's nest. The Liberty. The captain and crew were fog lifted then, and I told the lookout toasted again and again, and the life forward to go into the crows nest with savers who stood by and aided so the other man and keep his eyes open "Going by the soundings, I judged

The life savers have taken every pos- that the ship was fifteen miles to the stole precaution to provide for the south of the lightship. I laid the course rescue of the crew in the even; of five degrees to the north and allowed nasty weather. Breeches buoy lines have two degrees for drifting, and believed been strung from the vessel to the that we should pass seven miles south

Was Going Full Speed. "A few minutes after four bells (

The changing of the wind into the o'clock) I gave the order to go full portheast and the appearance of a fist- speed ahead, which is fourteen knots an ful of grayish glouds on the horizon at- hour. The horizon was clear four or five tracted the attention of the life-savers | miles ahead. At 240 I was on the bridge garded as ominous. "A northeaster and as her keel went over the bar, and I a hard blow coming," was the way it know that we were aground. I stopped was interpreted by Surfman Reynolds the engines and then went full speed However, with the passengers all astern immediately in the hope of get-came, and also in case of danger of th

Wind Helped Hold Her.

Avonta A. C., who won second prize in the recent tourney of the Irish

Eddle Kelly Defeats Rose

the Canadian fighter, met Jack McCor-

RESULTS

Unholz Knocked Out.

ST. JOSEPH, Me., April 5.-Rudaiph

Uncompromising Domination.

American Athletic Club. Oterson surely develop into a first-cluse, teur with a little more experienc he is a clever two-handed bover, s hold a special meeting at the 'Astor House on Monday night to consider the There were no evidences of damage to matter of transportation from the east- and works from 2 A. M. to 11 A. M. the hull and an inspection showed that the vessel was not making water. Supt. Son. It is expected that the South Shore of the floating of the Irene and the motor hoats in use this year. In present on the cargo, He said:

DISCUSS BOAT SERVICE.

"All desemble on the cargo, He said: "All depends on the weather when we get the Irene off the shoats. Three or four ligaters will be here this afternoon and the work of taking off the cargo should be concluded by sunday night or early Monday. All the hatches will be will be will be will run between Wreck Lead and Nass."

Vious years th eclub maintained a boat in the residents of Nassau, but beginning this month the Benz, a Ed-point dusketball player.

Oterson weighs 198 pounds stripped and stands a feet 11 inches. He has entered the amateur boxing tournament of the Mott Haven A. C., which takes place at the Fairmont A. C. on April will run between Wreck Lead and Nass. sau early and late, and trips will be made to Freeport also. The summer residents of the Point Lookout end of the 105 CONVICTS BURIED BY MINE EXPLOSION.

s corps of assistants, was on board to convicts, were believed to be dead this beck the freight as it was lightered, afternoon in the Banner mine of the

JAMESTOWN ENTRIES.

Last Pros. 120 John A. Munce.

Last Pros. 120 John A. Munce.

SiXYH RACE. Selling three-percent and in mile and distance by Gal 96. They have left the Hall 164; Henry Munce. 103. "The Monk 98. Tom McHon. 97. Ser Edward, 106." Frank Burdell, 105. Odlewska. 30.

*Fire femals apprentice allowance claimed. First race, 2.30 P. M.

Transhipping the Irene's 1,743 Passengers

FIFTH AVENUE THRILLED BY CAPTURE OF A RUNAWA

by Mounted Policemen Fisch and Plagge.

A driverless runaway horse, wild with In a fast battle of ten rounds, Eddle fright, without a bridle, dragging a twolightweight of Harlem, de- wheeled ash cart, dashed down Fifth feated Kid Rose of Brooklyn in the avenue just before noon to-day, endanmain event at the New Polo A A stag. Rose broke his had in the fourth round of the bout by hitting Kelly on gering the lives of hundreds of persons and frightening thousands of others. the head with a wild right swing. Des. After scrambling to places of safety the pite the injury, Rose lought right on to the finish with the disabled hand.

In the semi-final Frankle Fleming, themen as was ever shown in a Wild mick and knocked him out in the third round with a heavy swing on the jaw. The driver of the horse-Peter Decose of No. 341 East Forty-eighth street-had taken off its bit to let it feed while he went into No. 26 West Fifty-second street. The wagon belonged to Thomas Burke, a private contractor of No. 116 place at East Fifty-third street. When Derose was trying to replace the bit, an autimobile horn sounding under the horse's nose, set it to rearing and leaping. Adams get out. Derose was thrown to the pavement and > riages going down Broadway checked the runaway, but only for a moment. It turned south, down the avenue, swing-men on foot pushed and struck right mine disaster in the anthracite con refrom running into the street.

Plagge, behind was racing beside the The wild horse was plunging ahend as though the cart behind him were of no more consequence than a west curb. In front of Silo's auction the least mutilated. Heading the list of victims is Joseph echoed over the streets the shouting.

Letting go Dony's bridle, Plange

Adams of No. 3 East Seventy-second E. Evans of West Scranton, who was gesticulating our market army ceased The wheel of the ash cart struck the car slewed around and strick the curb ing cloud of dust puffed up and filled into the streets to the second-story windows. When it settled down the crowd saw the runaway horse lying on its side jammed back under the shafts of the overturned cart. Policeman Plagge, his usually spotless uniform all gray with ashes, was sitting on the horse's head. Wiping his face with his bandwerchted, being how he same to be as the course of the workers being hashes, was stepping around uneasily nosing at him.

Bennett was scratched and bruised, ing cloud of dust puffed up and filled with the streets to the second-story windows. When it settled down the crowd saw into the smoke-laden mine filled with deadly black damp.

"There are martyrs in every cause." In exert cause, or and the alightest injury.

At the Volunteer Hospital, where the injured men were taken, Dr. A. J. Say, and in its weeks time the was entirely into action in the anthractic coal region, and Evans, who was stepping around uneasily into the smoke-laden mine filled with deadly black damp.

"There are martyrs in every cause." It was the first time that the Federal regions and the slightest injury.

At the Volunteer Hospital, where the was improving, and in sty weeks injured men were taken, Dr. A. J. Say, injured men were taken, Dr. A. J rooms in Stapleton on April 26.

Are Women Vata!

evening.

STATEN ISLAND NOTES.

The Einigkeit Singing Society of An enjoyable affair was a dance given Staten Island will give a concert at the Hichmond Theatre, in Stapleton, on era Harbor at the clubbouse last clicking in the dead who lay arrests of clicking in the dead who lay arrests.

Miss Maude Reynolds of Kreischerville, has returned from Toronto, where she was the guest of friends for a week. Rev. Dr. Moore will occupy the pulpit to the Moravian Church of Stapleton not even the ladies themselves, Psychol-NORFOLK, Vs. April 8. Jamesiuen eatries for Mondat's races are as follows:

PHRST RACE—Selling: four-year-olds and upsix and one-half furloogs—Wadas sixter, 103;
Parkifflader, 112. Farvite, 108 Jambille, 117;
Baby Wol, 107, Lawin Windin, 118, Laminling Even, 100, Heads River, 110, John Patter sell, 105, Lawin Windin, 118, Laminling Even, 100, Lawin Windin, 118, Laminling Even, 100, Lawin Windin, 118, Laminling from an infected ear, due to an operation, and Moove won by pounding the last furlows—Lapining 60, Dress Parche
II. 117, Idle Michael, 106, None, 64; Royal Lodge bit Musk Molon, 98; Whip, 97.

FURTH RACE—Selling: three-pear-olds
Rutterffs, 101, Ranives, 106, 16, M. Miller, 106,
Hoffman, 160, Monsel Angele 106.
FIFTH RACE—Selling inverses the
Rutterffs, 101, Ranives, 106, 16, M. Miller, 106,
Hoffman, 160, Monsel Angele 106.
FIFTH RACE—Selling inverses the
Rutterffs, 101, Ranives, 106, 16, M. Miller, 106,
Hoffman, 160, Monsel Angele 106.
FIFTH RACE—Selling inverses the
Rutterffs, 101, Ranives, 106, 16, M. Miller, 106,
Hoffman, 160, Monsel Angele 106, Dress Parche
Rutterffs, 101, Ranives, 106, 16, M. Miller, 106,
Hoffman, 160, Monsel Angele 106, Dress Parche
Rutterffs, 101, Ranives, 106, 16, M. Miller, 106,
Hoffman, 160, Monsel Angele 106, Dress Parche
Rutterffs, 101, Ranives, 106, 16, M. Miller, 106,
Hoffman, 160, Monsel Angele 106,
First Race — Selling inverses the
Rutterffs, 101, Ranives, 106, 16, M. Miller, 106,
Hoffman, 160, Monsel Angele 106,
First Race — Selling inverses the
Rutterffs, 101, Ranives, 102, M. Miller, 106,
Hoffman, 160, Monsel Angele 106,
First Race — Selling inverses the
Rutterffs, 101, Ranives, 102, M. Miller, 106,
Hoffman, 160, Monsel Angele 106,
First Race — Selling inverses the
Rutterffs, 101, Ranives, 102, M. Miller, 106,
Hoffman, 160, Monsel Angele 106,
First Race — Selling inverses the Rutterffs, 101, Ranives, 102, Ranives, 103, Ranives, 103, Ranives, 104, Ranives, 106, Ranives, 106, Ran to-morrow morning and evening.

At the annual meeting of the Ocean Yacht Club of Stapleton held at the clubhouse on Thursday evening the following officers were elected for the year: William Spielberg, commodore: operation, and Moore won by paunding lowing Paul Manufwitz, vice-commodore; Louis tion. Their slavery to the rouge pot A Mean Scheme.

(From the Pitzsburg Post)

"You don't mean to tell me that you James Dunn, measurer: William Me. James Dunn, measurer: William are going to wear a mixture of red. Laughila, fleet captain; and George brown and yellow purfs?"

Laughila, fleet captain; and George Supperon, Casper Faline and B. Jenkfor each other they prove at the same for each other they prove at the same time immensely attractive to mere man.

I had there made from the election.

The distribution of the limit of the annual disner of the Staten with the most thoroughly unite-date distribution will all be at the ball Island Driving Club at the Hofel St. httless effect, whose cheeks would pale George on April 18. the modest blush of the ripe peach, Miss Hattie Wilson of Stapleton will whose scarlet lips are the model of Miss Hattle Wilson of Stapleton will spend the next two weeks in Atlantic like limpid pools of light would have city.

The Lakeview Mone for Jewish Girls the effect only of repulsing the Mussul-

Gotch Defeats Westergard.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 8.—Frank Gotch defeated Jesse Westergard of Des Moines, Is., in two straight falls.

Do you think that women could assume an attitude of uncompromising at Fort Wadsworth will be dedicated to-morrow with appropriate exercises.

A bridge euchre under the auspices of and the pantaloons.

Heaped in Pancoast Colliery Near Scranton.

Bodies of Men and Boys Found his in charge of the searching parties taken to the Volunteer Hospital. riages and automobiles out of the road the road the Pencoast Mine at Throop yesterday pleyed on the twenty-fourth floor were the bloody sports of ancient Rome"— until not a few of them took to the the Pencoast Mine at Throop yesterday pleyed on the twenty-fourth floor were the bloody sports of ancient Rome"—

until not a few of them took to the the Pencoast Mine at Throop yesterday pleyed on the twenty-fourth floor were the bloody sports of ancient Rome"— until not a few of them took to the the place of all the place of Wild West Show Is Outdone sidewalks, driving pedestrians into was seventy-four. The bodies of all the narrow and thrilling. The derrick was doorways and to flatten themselves vectims had been recovered. The large used on that floor and it was there mobile cup race?" against show windows, Traffic police- number of dead exceeds that of any and left to keep panic stricken people gions in recent years. The origin of the fire has not yet been ascertained, but a J. P. Morgan & Co. and on another corrigid investigation is being conducted by ner is the Sub-Treasury. The Stock the holsting engine rooms in the within a hundred feet of the accident. vain grabs at the loosened bridle Plagge "China" vein, 750 feet beneath the sur- All the financial institutions of the got a grip on it at Forty-seventh street. face, the lowest working in the mine, His horse Dony, a veteran at just such did not do as much damage as had created by the smashing, crashing tumwork, threw his weight against the been believed. The fire did not reach bie as it came from the lofty station runaway's side and fell in step so that the entombed men, and the condition was intense. of their bodies showed that death was No one could tell what might happen due to suffocation from smoke or sa- to those in the streets, and to occupants swung over, gripping his saddle with physication from the accumulated gas, of nearby buildings of less height. Am-None of the bodies which were found bulances were hastily called to care for is knees.

The ashcart horse bore in towards the in a heap in the blind gangway was in the injured. The onwork on the building is being done by P. & McCord.

All Mourn He

with a joil. Mrs. Adams was thrown forward to the floor of the car. Bender the steering wheel and fell in the gatter.

The ash cart horse bere in toward the ing tribute to the heroism of ing loud of dust puffed up and filled in the gatter.

The ash cart horse bere in toward the ingular tribute to the heroism of levation to the higher floors. Twenty-shift. with a jolt. Mrs. Adams was thrown Holmes, director of the U. S. Bureau alarm,

The supply of fresh air is not sufficient the Deutscher Heulfs Verein of Rich- and a man wearing a helmet dies from mond will be given at the German club- carbon dioxide.

Night Search for Dead.

picking up the dead, who lay strewn along the further parts of the Hi-fated tunnel of the Pancoast colliery, from off which were the chambers and headings into which they had entered for their day's toil. ogists have advanced various theories. The disaster was the worst in the

One says that they dress to please men: history of the hard coal fields in this section, exceeding the number of dead

NEW PUBLICATIONS

Stories of brave deeds done by rescuers are being told to-day by miners (Continued from Pirst Page.) me to make their escape. It is re- lowing band of batters: Look, 15 John lated that Councilman Perry, Mine Fore-son, rf., Becker, c., towdy, its man Knight and Fire Boss Dawes per-son and Knight and Fire Boss Dawes per-son and the fire Boss Dawes per-son and the

of their danger. They were overcome before they could return to safety. The bodies of the dead showed that all had made a hard struggle for life, burying their leads deep in the culm and wrapping their coats about their heads in an effort to ward off the poisin the hox. The rules then picked the war that and there were doing galore. Details in a case like this at edicus, but na chits, wild throws busied stims and a fluxi two-bagger h Manush netted our coming heroes two cuits and they erfired to the benen with snow began to fail, and the young atta-letes who were born and bred in south-west Texas looked on askance. Flow-cher got a bare on balls and went to second by stealing the bag. Hartley singled and Fletcher, a he had stopped to lister to a short story between the Tons of Steel on Twenty-fourth and home, was called out at the plut Fourth—New York, 0; Yale, 0.

The building failed to materialize in the last first part of the fifth inning of the second game and the Giants won FIRST GAME SECOND GAME.

Tons of steel, comprising the huge derrick being used twenty-four stories above the heart of the financial dis- Yale trict for the construction of the Bank-Zhyszko Wins Over Cutler. ers Trust Building, at Wall and DENVER, April 8.-In the presence Nassau streets, crashed through the 6,000 speciators Zbyszko, seven top floors of the building to-wrestler, defeated Kid Cutler in a finish day, until the derrick rested upon the scent several workmen employed in must in nine minutes. Zbyzzko left for setting the structural iron and steel New York after the bout, where he is were carried down with the immense to appear Tuesday night.

Not a Bad Second.

(From the Baltimore American.)
"What a blessing civilization has been

DISFIGURED BABIES

And Worn-Out, Worried Parents Find

Comfort in Cuticura Soap and Ointment.

case as yours:

The eruption be

Barry Puts Helman Away. Bankers and brokers who thronged TULEA Okla, April 8 - Jim Barry, the Chicago heavyweight, knocked out Jack Helnan of Chicago in the fourth the Wall street district at its busies: time heard the deafening crash and the cries of the workmen. ound of their fight here to-night. The derrick caught Albert Hanson hirty-six years old, of Lynbrook, N. J., A Rare Case. pinning him between the framework of the building and the derrick. Both From the Louisville Contier-Journal.)

"He takes a cold bath every morning legs, below the knees, were practically a very remarkable man. amputated, and other injuries were rereputated, and other injuries were re-reived.

Peter Norman, a fellow-workman, he ever mentioned the fact. SCRANTON, Pa., April S.-Mine offi- was also seriously hurt. Both were ceived.

here some years ago, when fifty-one men and boys lost their lives by en-

FROM SKYSCRAPER

Story Fall Through

Seven Floors.

huge steel girders below. In the de-escapes of the other men em-that the seriously hurt were employed. made by the avaianche of steel. Just across the street is the office of

SKIN-TORTURED AND Exchange is half a short block away The fire, which started in one of and the curb market was in full swing neighborhood were at the senith of the day's transactions an the excitement

Curb Mar et Stampeded.

Is your little one a sufferer from itching, burning exzema or other torturing, disfiguring skin trouble? Are you, yourself, worn out by long, sleepless nights and ceaseless anxiety, and have you tried treatment after treatment without avail? If so, you will read with interest the following letter from Mrs. Noble Tubrnan, of Dodson, Mont., telling what Cuticura soap and Cuticura ointment did for just such a case as yours: street, was just drawing in to let Mrs. foreman of the United States rescue making dear and dumb signs to the foreman of the United States rescue making deaf and dumb signs to the car, which was hurried to the mine windows above them, forgot for the from its station at Wilkes-Barre. He time the rise and fall of mining securities with large sores that seemed to itch was thirty-five years old. Dr. J. A. ties and rushed toward the corner in was thirty-five years old. Dr. J. A. ties and rushed toward the corner in elevation to the higher floors. Twenty-five men were struggling with the "We tried a great many remedies

SOLD EVERYWHERE

CURNITURE

Wholesale Furniture, 30-32 F. 21st. LOST, FOUND AND REWARDS. LOST Priday 8250 in bills, in bankbook, on Bib av., near 10th st. seward. John Klapholz, care Otto Kunhir & Prokish 129 W 20th st.

HELP WANTED-MALE. PIPEFITTERS, also men to creek milling machinery. Apply The Grasselli Chemical Co., Grasselli, N. J.; take Central R. R. of N. J.

VICTOR AEOLIAN HALL 362 FIFTH AV deal more."

Cuticura soap and cintment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, but mothers of skin-tortured infants and children can obtain a liberal sample of each, mailed free, with a thirty-two page booklet on the skin and its treatment, by addressing "Cuticura," Dept. A. Boston, Mass.

THE

RETAILED AT WHOLESALE PRICES

This Buffet, Cotonial pattern, in Quartered $20 tern, in Quartered $

CONSTIPATION LAXATIVE IT ALL DRUG STORE

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

GAYNOR CHARTER BILL

JOURNAL OF THE CIVIL SERVICE Joseph J. O'Reilly, Editor-45 Centre St.